CLIME ICLEM

CANADIAN LEADERSHIP
INSTITUTE FOR MEDICAL EDUCATION

February 4- February 7, 2019
Toronto, Ontario

The Canadian Association for Medical Education (CAME) and its partners have created CLIME to develop national leaders in medical education.

CLIME is designed to meet the needs of individuals who are engaged in leading initiatives that will promote excellence, innovation, change, and scholarship in medical education.

CLIME 2019 will be presented in English.

Produced in collaboration with:

CENTRE FOR FACULTY
DEVELOPMENT

St. Michael's

Inspired Care.
Inspiring Science.

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

THE COLLEGE OF
FAMILY PHYSICIANS
OF CANADA

LE COLLÈGE DES
MÉDECINS DE FAMILLE
DU CANADA

By the end of CLIME, participants will be able to:

- Identify their professional goals as leaders in the health professions and discuss ways of achieving these goals
- Analyze their own leadership styles as well as others' styles and consider how style influences practice, using different models of leadership and change
- Apply a framework for analyzing change to specific situations in their own professional contexts
- Master different conflict management styles and negotiation strategies
- Describe an approach to establishing and leading effective teams
- Define "scholarship" with respect to medical education and discuss strategies to foster scholarly work

"Something for everyone from beginner to "veterans" in MedEd—this is a gift of time to reflect on how to "live" the academic life!

- CLIME PARTICIPANT -

The Institute is geared towards health professional educators who are in a position to implement new skills in the workplace. Teaching and learning methods will include: interactive lectures, individual assignments, self-reflection, small-group sessions, team work, and opportunities for networking. Moreover, case examples used during the program will be directly applicable to medical education.

*This course will be offered in English.
Space is limited to 45 participants.*
