

CAME Executive – President-Elect – Duties and Responsibilities

The CAME President-Elect shall, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President and shall perform such other duties as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time.

As an Officer with voting privileges on the CAME Executive, the President-Elect will become President at the CAME Annual General Meeting in April 2022. The CAME President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of CAME and shall perform all such duties as are customary for a Chief Executive Officer of a corporation similar in size and operation to the Association. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Members and of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee. He/she shall have the general and active management of the affairs of the Association. He/she shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect and shall perform such other duties as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time.
